

Get 25 percent off
Botanical Gardens
admission,
July 1 through 4—
with “password”!

Learn a little horticulture and get 25 percent off general admission, Saturday through Tuesday, July 1 through July 4, at the South Texas Botanical Gardens and Nature Center, 8545 S. Staples St. Related to Independence Day, lots of Russelia equisetiformis are blooming around Corpus Christi. So to receive your discount, remember to say its common name—FIRECRACKER PLANT—when checking in at the Visitors Center!

Popular “Parrot Talk” visitor-interactive shows also are included with holiday weekend admission, at 1:30 pm, Saturday, Sunday and Monday only—with plenty of other flora, fauna, fun for the Fourth--including the landmark Orchid and Bromeliad Conservatories, Rose Garden, Plumeria Garden—plus Resident Reptiles, Monkey Mansion Treehouse, wetland boardwalk, and award-winning photos from Wildlife in Focus photography competition on the Brennecke Nature Trail!

Discounted Gardens admission, if you remember the password, is $6 adults; $4.50 at age 60/Active Military/College Students; and $3 ages three through 12. Information, 361-852-2100; www.stxbot.org.

FLORA, FAUNA, FUN--FOURTH OF JULY!